Description

Bohemian Guitars BOHO Motor Oil Can electric guitar, with double humbucker pickups and a red metal motor oil can for the body of the guitar. The guitar features a maple neck with rosewood fretboard and a Tune-o-Matic bridge. It has a built-in rubber stand at the base of the body. Bohemian Guitars was founded in Atlanta, Georgia in 2012 by South African brothers Adam and Shaun Lee. Bohemian uses unconventional materials to create guitars, basses, and ukuleles. The Lees were inspired by township residents in Johannesburg, South Africa, who re-purposed used materials to create instruments.
